Liability

The organizer and host assume no liability!

Data protection

We would like to point out that this competition is a public event. The BTV reserves the right to make and distribute pictures and sound recordings of participants and guests as well as lists of results for public relations purposes, unless participants and guests object in individual cases.

The legal basis for this is Art. 6, Para. 1 Lit. f. DSGVO.

The legitimate interest of BTV is to hold events in accordance with its statutory objectives and to provide information about the content of the events as part of its public relations work.

A description of the rights as a data subject applies analogously to the data protection declaration at <https://www.btv-turnen.de/datenschutz.html>.

The referee management can also create videos of participants for training purposes of the referees.

The reporting club has to inform its participants or their legal guardians about.

Protection from violence

The protection of children, adolescents and adults is an important matter for BTV. In the every day work of gymnastics and sports clubs as well as in framework of such events, the sports activities are designed responsibly, while at the same time supporting the development of personality. The aim is to create a culture of attention and not looking away. Therefore, the BTV commits itself to certain measures to protect all parties involved in this event: Processing the registration and confirming the clubs commitment to the code of honour and rules of conduct, providing an online video to raise awareness of the parties involved in the clubs: Basic information on interpersonal violence in sports.
